Massage from President

Dear all

I am feeling ecstatic and proud to present the report for 2021. Due to the financial crunch and effect of the COVID pandemic last year, PDRC was on the verge of shutdown which created a situation of panic. I did not want to see the death of the organization for the main reason it was established by Birendra Bishwakarma, former Executive Director of the organization, with the aim at promoting quality higher education among Dalit youths who are systematically deprived of education by the state in the name of religion. So, I strived to keep the organization alive. This organization is primarily a mission-oriented and not project-oriented organization. We all know very well that without the support of organization such as PDRC, it is not possible to create an environment of quality, employable and value-based education for the Dalit community and bring them into the mainstream of the nation. Education is not necessary for the survival of a person but it assists in the development and raising the financial capacity of a person. Hence, education is a must. To fulfil this goal, this organization needs to exist for at least another 50 years.

Our only long-term individual donor Dr. Tom Jacobson is the heart of the organization. Without his long-term commitment, it would not have been possible for us to run this organization smoothly and effectively till now. Last year due to the financial crisis in his business he was not in a position to provide funds for the whole year in the beginning, but still, he was able to provide funds for four months. After that, we faced uncertainty about whether we could continue the organization or not. Nevertheless, my intuition realized that it must move forward whether we had funds or not. So, I kept the organization running and did a couple of activities that did not require expenses. At the end of the year, Dr. Tom again resumed the funding and now he has committed to providing funds till the year 2024. After certainty of fund, I managed to resume all the programs and activities. I am grateful to Dr. Tom for his benevolent contribution to the organization.

After having faced such unexpected crises of the fund, what I realized was that we need to be locally sustained and also organization must have its fund to address the crises situation. Taking this situation into consideration this year, I managed to establish one crore (10 million) Nepalese Rupees. Fund. I am pleased to share the news that I have already been able to collect NRs. 2 million in this fund. I am hopeful that I will be able to collect the targeted amount very soon. I am thankful to those who have made contributions to establish this fund. Another initiative is we are going to establish a business company to generate funds for the organization. We are also getting financial support from our well-wishers and donors. Now I have the confidence that I can run the organization without any obstacles in coming days.

Other meaningful achievements for the organization are this year the organization has been able to elect the new board with energetic and enthusiastic executive members through the national convention. I am hopeful that this board will be productive and useful to make the organization self-sustained economically and effective from the viewpoint of program implementation. Dr. Ramesh Sunar, President of PDRC International America also visited the organization and has committed to contribute funds to provide scholarships to law students. Joy and Duen Popy, a couple residing in the UK has been also kind to this organization. They have been providing funds to the organization for a couple of years now. With the support of various donors, I have been able to establish a fund to support victims of caste-based discrimination. For this contribution, I am grateful to the Bishwakarma Welfare Society of the UK and other individual donors. Deepak Jung Bishwokarm, residing in the USA has also made financial contribution to organization.

Finally, I would like to express gratitude to everyone supportive to keep this organization alive during the crises period. I am expecting their cooperation and collaboration in future as well, since, what I have been doing is to bring the most backward community into the mainstream of the nation and also it is to support the community to live the dignified life they are entitled to in the Nepalese society.

With best wishes

Kamala Hemchuri

1. Introduction

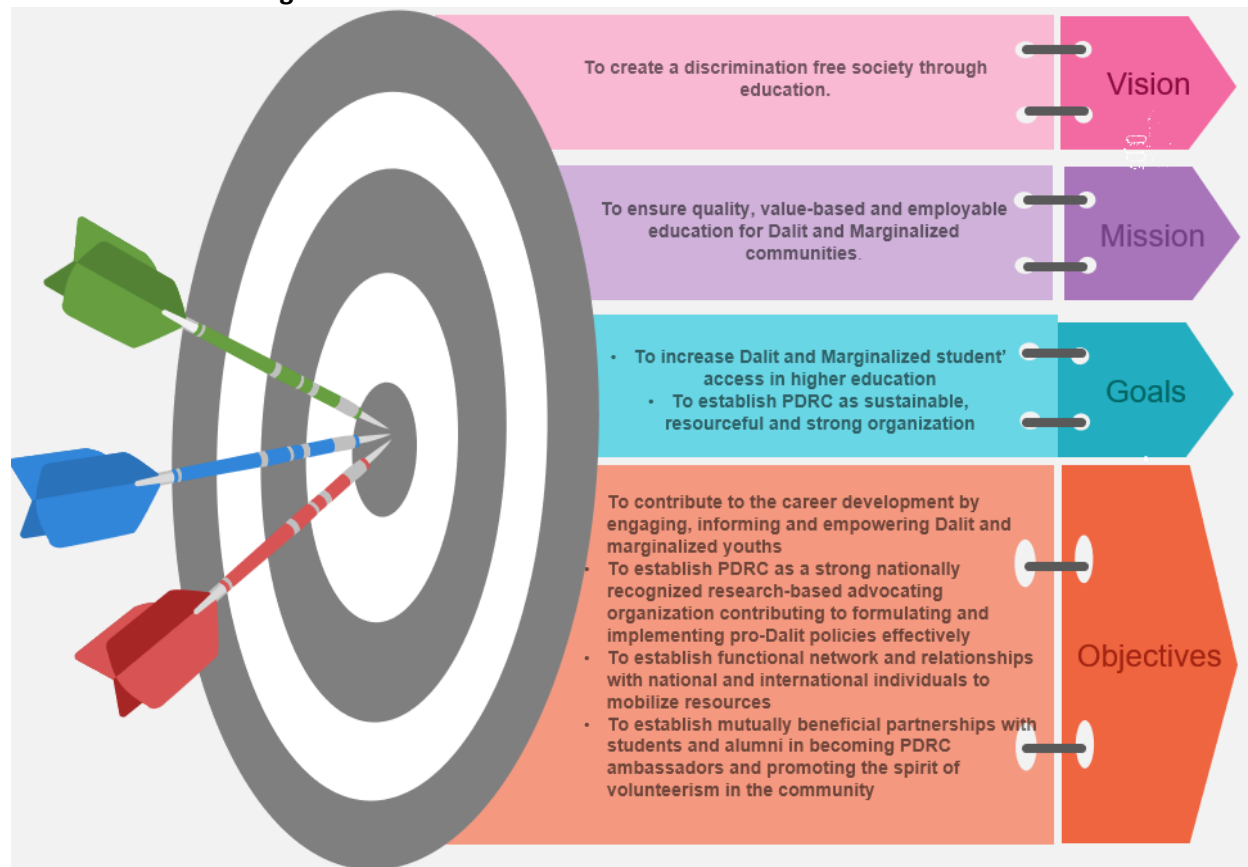

The Professional Development and Research Center (PDRC) is a non-profitable and non-governmental organization, which was established in 2005 with the slogan of “Making your dream into reality”. Since centuries, Dalit people were systematically prohibited from getting education by the state due to the caste system that was practiced until 1950 AD. In the past they were treated as untouchable. Though the practice of untouchability was abolished legally, the legacy of the past is still visible in the life of Dalit community. Even in the present, they are economically, politically, socially lagging behind in comparison to non-Dalit community. Data produced by various organizations and Nepal government have proved that scenario. What we have realized is that the situation faced by the community is due to lack of proper and quality higher education. Education is the foundation for the socio-economic development of a community in general and a person in particular. Without having access to quality higher education, it is not possible to bring them into the main stream of nation. Since education is a part of a culture and it was not a culture of Dalit community to get educated in the past.

PDRC has been working to develop the culture of education and create favorable environment to have access to quality higher education to youths of the community since its inception by providing different types of services through various programs and activities ranging from counseling, public service preparation class and financial support to the needy and talented students.

2. The VMGO of the organization

PDRC has the following VMGOs to fulfill the constitution’s aim:

3. Organization Development and Activities

Executive Board Formation

PDRC is a democratic organization. It follows the democratic norms, values, and principles of good governance. Accordingly, the 16th annual general Assembly or the 7th convention has elected Mrs Kamala Hemchuri as the president of the executive board for the next three years. The executive committee has been formed including 13 board members in accordance with the constitution of PDRC. The executive committee's list of names is included in the annex titled 'leadership of PDRC'. The executive board members have been chosen based on social inclusion including gender and caste.

The strategy plan Meeting of PDRC

PDRC organized a two-day workshop to formulate a five years strategy plan which involved the executive board members, management team, and Mr. Hira Bishwokarma as the resource person. He contributed voluntarily as resource person. The strategy will guide PDRC on becoming a sustainable, efficient and dynamic organization to achieve the goals, mission, and vision sustainably.

4. Program and Services

Background of Program

The annual plan which has been approved by the general assembly of PDRC, is being implemented by the management team accordingly. The Annual plan was formed focusing on the donor's requirements and in accordance with the vision, mission, goals, and objectives of the program. The organization faced financial challenges in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Also, we could see the lack of support from the donor agencies. This unfavorable situation had impacted our plan and programs. After mutual understanding between the donor and the organizations, only limited programs are being continued. We developed a proposal for the program named Dr. Tom Jacobsen Fund (Scholarship for Higher education support program (SHESP)) which has been approved by Social Welfare Council (SWC). We now have full authority to implement the program with the recommendations of SWC. The details of program activities are as follows:

Academic and career counselling

Academic career counseling is an ongoing program of PDRC. It is one of the main and effective programs of PDRC to provide an opportunity to receive quality education for the marginalized and Dalit community. A student should be clear in his/her academic vision to develop a career in future. We have experience of providing academic counseling for the past 17 years, hence, we have handled many issues that the students face. In counseling, a student can learn any academic queries, gain motivation, problem-solving skills, leadership development, scholarship, decision-making skills, maintain personality and develop moral education. In 2021, we were unable to fully provide this service due to the pandemic. However, 159 (Male-98 and female61) students and parents benefited from Academic Career counseling from PDRC. This program has achieved the required target goals as determined by the action plan.

Dr. Tom Jacobsen Fund (Scholarship for Higher Education Support Program (SHESP))

Scholarship Distribution Process

A one-year agreement has been signed by the students who have received the scholarship. The students were then supposed to provide PDRC with their course progress report after their completion. However, the pandemic postponed the designated course exams making the students unable to submit their progress reports in time. Scholarship Distribution activities are scheduled on the annual plan.

On 27 May 2021, PDRC had organized 'Scholarship Distribution and Interaction program' (for May to December of 2020) where the ward chairperson had distributed the scholarship amount to the scholarship holders. As the program's chief guest, we invited our local ward chairperson Mrs. Sova Saapkota, and as our special guest we invited Mr. Naatikaji Maharjan who is the principal of Gyanoday Higher Secondary School. Mrs. Kamala Hemchuri held the role of chairperson of the program and DB Bishwakarma, PDRC's acting Director, conducted anchoring of the program.

On August 28, PDRC again had organized a 'Scholarship Distribution and Interaction program' for another batch of new students which was held at Gyanodaya Higher Secondary School Baphal, Kathmandu. The Scholarship amount was distributed by Mr. Pushkar Khati, Member Secretary of Social Welfare Council, and Mr. Natikaji Maharjan, Principal of Gyanodaya Higher Secondary School. This was the main part of Dr. Tom Jacobsen Higher education Support program. PDRC provided an opportunity for the most vulnerable community of Nepali society.

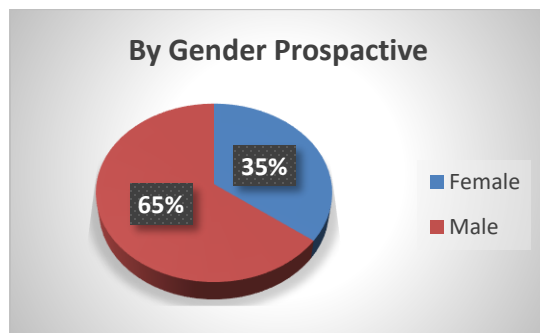

Twenty new students were selected for the scholarship program from different parts of Nepal, where, three students for Diploma level, sixteen students for undergraduate (bachelor), and one for Graduate (master degree) program. It is an outstanding program for Nepal because no Dalit supporting NGOs' have given scholarships in higher education. The students selected represent people from underprivileged communities with poverty, marginalized girls, and Dalits (who is facing inhumane and undignified life in society).

- One MPHIL student who is studying at Tribhuwan University received a fixed amount as one time scholarship.
- One law student received a full scholarship from another organization, so, he left the Dr. Tom Jacobsen scholarship as a support to marginalized youth.

Gender inclusion in Scholarship for Higher Education program

PDRC has always maintained gender balance, social inclusion and respected the constitutional provisions while forming the executive board and organizing programs. The following description shows the figure of gender representation in SHESP distribution.

By gender	Number
Female	18
Male	33
Total	51

Especially, PDRC encourages students everywhere to pursue higher education especially students who are in poverty and belong to marginalized communities of Nepal. The above figure presents the gender inclusiveness in our program and in our executive committee which is led by a female.

Coverage of Academic level and Subject through the Scholarship for Higher Education program

For a decade, PDRC had focused on providing scholarships in the science and technology sector, but later the same scholarship has aimed for different thematic study areas, including law and social science for various levels. The following table shows various academic levels SHESP have provided scholarships in.

The figure below provides an overview of contributions in Scholarship for Higher education Support Program.

PSC preparatory Class for Section Officer Level

The PSC Section officer Level preparatory class is the second program of our Annual plan. This program plays a vital role in entering Dalit youths into the bureaucracy of the Government of Nepal as section officer which opens the door for becoming up to chief secretary. The prevailing reservation policy of the government has allocated a certain percentage of seats for Dalit youths in entering the civil services. Many of those seats go empty due to a lack of awareness, reach and financial status of the Dalit community. PDRC is trying to bridge the gap by providing PSC preparatory classes to the students who are capable and have their dream to enter the civil services. The preparatory class of PSC was started on 1st October 2021. A program was held to launch the project and it was inaugurated by the National Dalit commission's chairperson, Honorable Mr. Debraj Bishwakarma. The preparatory classes are being conducted until the next PSC examination date. 80 participants have benefited from the class.

Section Officer Preparatory Class has become a phenomenal achievement in the history because it has crossed a decade and now it is in its tenth cohort. In this cohort, 151 applicants applied, 111 participants appeared in the entrance exam, and 100 participants were selected for the PSC preparatory class through the entrance exam. However, only 80 participants are participating in the preparation. We respected the interest of participants in preparation for this cohort. Every year this program is run in collaboration with other likeminded organizations. This year Nepal Dalit Nijamati Karmchari Samaj, Nepal Rastriya Bhiswakarma Samaj, Nepal National Dalit Welfare Organization have been the partner organizations.

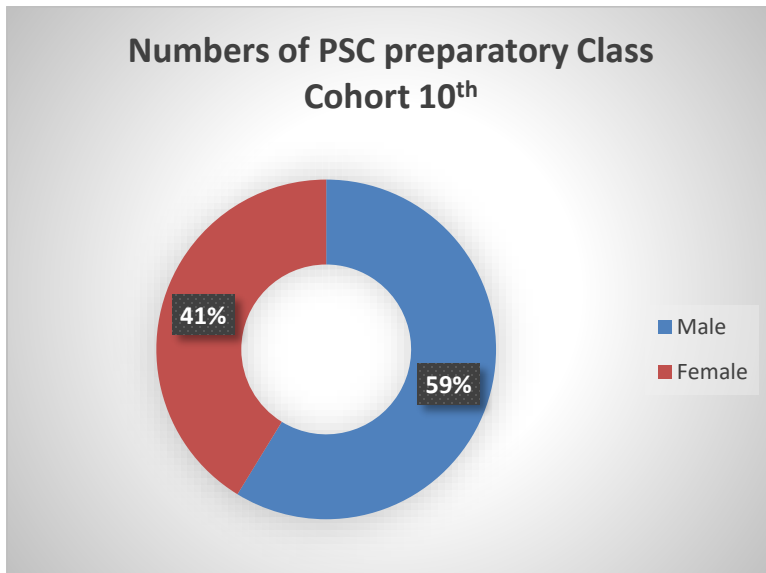

After having completed the Public Service Commission examinations and interviews, four candidates have become successful in entering the judiciary service of the Nepal Government. Two candidates are waiting for the interview results. These candidates had participated in the PSC preparatory classes in previous years.

Participants of PSC's cohort 10th

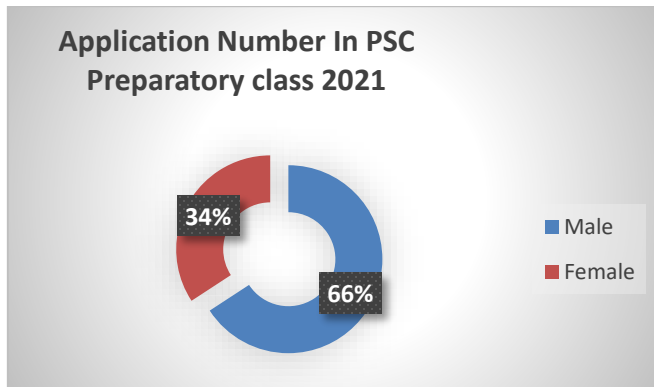

Altogether, 51 candidates got a chance to be a member of Nepal's civil services from our joint effort till now.

Gender	Number	Percentage
Male	47	58.75
Female	33	41.25

Success of PSC in this year

Four candidates succeeded to get an appointment in judiciary officer through PSC exam. Right now, 51 officers have been selected from this program and they are working in different level of Government of Nepal. The judiciary reservation quotas for Dalit community are still going vacant, so, we try to empower them to become successful in admission for judicial services.

Academic Performance of Students

We tried to collect the progress report of the scholarship holders of Dr. Tom Jacobsen scholarship fund. Some students were able to provide updates on their progress reports but some could not. Universities were unable to conduct exams due to the pandemic and lockdowns. So, the figure below shows the performances of students.

5. Advocacy program

Solidarity in Caste Base Discrimination case

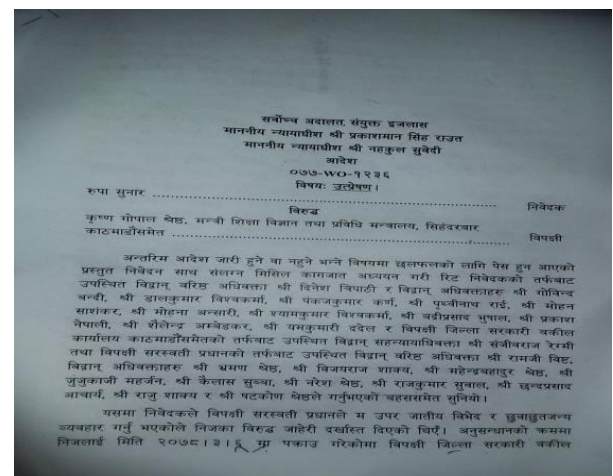

PDRC raises its voice for a discrimination-free society and is working in solidarity with the stakeholders. The Dalit community has been suffering from inhumane treatment from the so-called “high-caste” people since a very long period of time. This directly affects a person’s development, education, social status, and human dignity. These issues are directly related to human rights and are the responsibility of the state to eradicate them.

We believe education is one of the ways for a person to develop a career and their financial situation. However; the so-called untouchables were prohibited from getting formal education which was enforced through religion and later by the law. The discrimination has affected Dalits in lower access to education, low-income rates leading to poverty, no access to justice in the cases of discrimination faced by these people in their day-to-day life. Many unfortunate incidents happen due to the culture of untouchability in Nepal. That is why they need legal support for access to justice. PDRC has supported the Dalit community by advocating in the court in some caste-based discrimination cases.

PDRC has worked towards supporting the victims in the cases of caste-based discrimination in our society. In the High court of Patan, Lalitpur, the case of caste-based discrimination was appealed for reviewing the verdict of Sindupalchok districtcourt. PDRC continuously helped and showed solidarity to victims in this case. A Dalit had entered the premises of the Temple on the occasion of celebration and worship of the God Bhagawati, which is deemed unacceptable by the so-called “upper-caste” people. A person, belonging to the Ghale caste, had shown a hateful act towards this Dalit person which is punishable according to the caste-based discrimination and untouchability (offence and punishment) act, 2011. The culprit was sentenced by the district court but filed an appeal in the High court of Patan. PDRC’s presence played a crucial role in providing justice to the victim and punishing the guilty. We pleaded in court against the culprit. In caste-based cases, a government lawyer does not show much sincerity in providing the victim with justice, hence, a private lawyer is required to plead in favor of the victim.

PDRC helped by providing a Pro Bono lawyer in Rupa Sunar's petition (writ) that was filed in the Supreme Court of Nepal. In the petition, the court ordered stay-order to state parties to maintain rule of law and support the victim with protection. Saraswati Shrestha had discriminated Rupa Sunar due to her caste.

The victim went to register FIR in the police station, but Police authorities refused to register the FIR. The incident then went viral in the media. Later, the court ordered to capture Saraswati Pradhan to interrogate her and investigate the case. In this case, Minister Krishna Gopal Shrestha from the Ministry of education had misused his authority by ordering the Police office to reject the registration of the FIR. This made Rupa Sunar go to the Supreme Court for justice.

The 73th International Human Rights Program

The 73th International Human Rights rally was affected due to the coronavirus. The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) had invited us to participate in the celebration program. The Commission had organized the program in the presence of the Prime Minister of the Government of Nepal as the chief guest. Unfortunately, this even could not take place. The state-mechanism is very passive to protect and promote the human rights of Dalit and Marginalized society. The subaltern groups are far from even exercising basic Human Rights. Every year the government makes a promise to fulfill the commitment of protection and promotion of Human Rights of the subaltern, but in practice it is rarely shown. It is then our responsibility to keep the government in check.

Similarly, some other organizations also had organized interaction programs on the issue of human rights in which the organization got to take part in.

An interaction program with the President of PDRC International USA, Dr. Ramesh Sunar.

An interaction program was organized to interact with Dr. Ramesh Sunar, president of PDRC International USA in presence of the board members, management team, and students. He has provided scholarships to students studying law through PDRC and he has made commitment to continue this support in future as well. He had also presented the programs and activities carried out by PDRC international USA. Also, shared the work they have been conducting to uplift the condition of Nepali youths internationally. PDRC Nepal and PDRC International are the wheel of the same cart, whose aim is to build an educated society in Nepal.

A Program to Honor Padam Bishwakarma

Mr. Padam Bishwakarm, president of Padam Bishwakarma Academy, Resident of USA was honored by the organization. In this program, an interaction program 'Role of Diaspora in promotion of Dalit literature also organized. This program was organized in collaboration with Buddha Ambedkar jagaran Mission. Advocates and dignitaries, researchers, intellectuals were shared their views and insights on subject matters. Padam Bishwakarma is an incredible poet and has written many poetries in his lifetime. Many speakers in the program presented on the role of literature in our culture, since it plays a vital role to change society in the future. It is thus essential that we recognize the inevitability of literature and education. The new generation of Dalit youths should be involved in the creation of and perusing literature.

One Crore Fund Raising Campaign

PDRC is a mission-oriented organization. The ultimate goal of this organization is to bring the most backward Dalit community youth into main stream of nation development process by making them professionally capable. Despite the fact that this organization has been working for over 17 years in the area of creating an environment for quality higher education and promoting culture of higher education due to lack of adequate fund it has not been able to achieve the goal that it has dreamed. Last year, because of not being unable to receive the fund from one and only donor of the organization Dr.

Tom, it was on the verge of shutting down. What we realized is that without having a regular fund of organization it is extremely difficult to run an organization smoothly and sustainably. So, this year we have established a Trust of one Koror Nepalese Rupees and now we are in the process of raising funds for this Trust. So far, we have been able to collect twenty lakhs Nepalese Rupees in the trust. We are hopeful that, we will be able to collect the targeted funds very soon. We request our well-wishers to support the initiation.

Lobbying

Lobbying with National Planning Commission
Member: s Firstly, a group of PDRC Team visited National Planning Commission's Honorable member Mrs. Saloni Singh to address the issue of the Dalit community entering into the higher education. She suggested making an action plan for improving the class drop-out rate from the marginalized and Dalit community in the secondary level. The team members were President Kamala Hemchuri, General Secretary Krishna Gajamer, Member Chakraman Bk, and Acting Executive Director DB Bishwakarma.

Secondly, we went to Kathmandu Modern College situated at Bagbazar for the admission process of class 11 for Pratyush Bishwakarma. The college had conducted an entrance examination for admission before the result of National Examination Board of Nepal government (SEE). However, we visited the principal of the college regarding lobbying for the scholarship. Pratyush attended entrance exams and passed for a partial scholarship. He also tried for a full scholarship from Dalit and government school but could not succeed. When we downloaded the results for people who received the scholarships from the website, only two Dalit students had received the scholarship. More than 1500 students have been admitted to the science faculty from which only two students had received the scholarship. Thus, we can see a big gap in the

Participated in other Organizations' program

The second lockdown had become more comfortable than the first due to the usage of technology. We participated in many meetings organized by different organizations using zoom. It built up good relationships, solidarity, government policy and its implementation in colleges and universities. The constitution has provided provisions for free education for Dalit youths, but in practice, it is completely different. So, we had to lobby with the Kathmandu metropolitan education department who are responsible to solve the issue regarding giving scholarship to the Dalit students through colleges and universities. He was then aware of the problem and suggested lobbying with stakeholders.

Went to lobby with the Kathmandu metropolitan education department head Ram Prasad Sharma to aware the Dalit and marginalized student scholarship distribution system and how to preserve the constitutional right of Dalit students free education from nursery to Higher education. The responsible person has shown the responsibility of them to preserve the fundamental rights. It is the response of them.

Impact through COVID-19, Pandemic in official work,

From April 29 to June 22, 2021, Government of Nepal had ordered a lockdown to address the issue of second wave of COVID-19. During the lockdown period, employees were unable to attend the office and field activities physically, however, certain official works were done from home. The activities that were conducted while working from home were monitoring of the students by communicating with them through phone, getting information about the health conditions of students, attending the zoom meetings.

and we acquired knowledge in various thematic areas from different experts. We provided feedback on various issues to improve the gaps in the thematic paper.

6. Students Gratitude

Students expressed their gratitude on the occasion of extending the scholarship for 2021. They expressed their gratitude to donors through

Dear sir,

I am Ashok Kumar Ram from Sauraha, Nepal. Currently a regular student of Chartered Accountant. I am a boy from a poor family who has big dreams in eyes but no support. My journey was started in Kathmandu. I went there chasing my dreams but I was in a dilemma but what I should be doing after +2. At the same time, PDRC/ Dr. Tom Jacobson scholarship package program assisted me to pursue CA course which was impossible for me and my family to afford.

PDRC has guided me to the correct path. I am PDRC's proper guidance, which drove me to join the CA course. PDRC has been providing the scholarship for my further studies which is very helpful for me to continue my studies. As a private donor of the scholarship program, Dr. Tom Jacobson is our God Father who generously supports for my higher degree and build my confidence to do more in life not just to those whom you know but to those who are in real need of help and perform well. PDRC always supports and guides me for my future since the initial days. PDRC has been helping me sharpen and flourish my abilities as an individual and professional development.

At last, I would like to say that what I am today is because of PDRC and Dr. Tom who changed my dreams into reality. Most importantly, my further performances will determine to achieve the successful path for the people in need and do more for our country. Despite of all the odds, I have been able to achieve this position in judiciary which has paved the way for other of the community. PDRC's PSC Exam preparation class of helping graduates from Dalit community is of great significance and suggestion others of the community to grab the opportunity. Also, PDRC should contribute this kind of programs in the upcoming days as well. I would like to extend my warm greetings to PDRC and shall always remain grateful for their contribution."

Individual donors contributing to the scholarship of students

1. Abha and Jacob Scholarship Fund

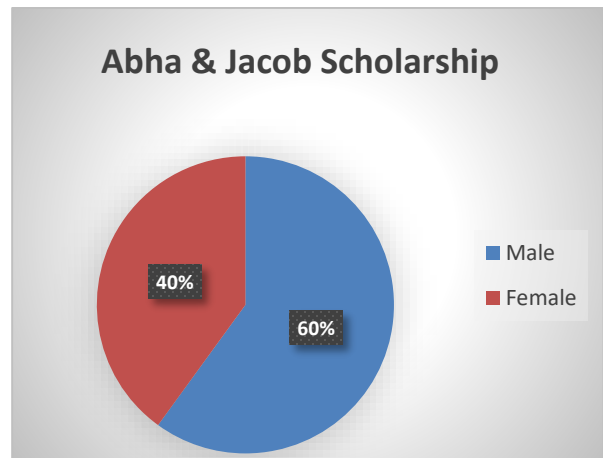

Seeing how PDRC works, few people were impressed and donated for the scholarship. Some students have already benefited from that in previous years. In this year, Mrs. Abha Dudhraj and Mr Jacob Åbacka have created a fund for Higher Secondary education Scholarship for ten Students who are studying in grade 11. A program was organized in presence of Abha Dudhraj Parents Dr. Meg Bahadur Bishwakarm and Kamala Hemchuri in order to distribute scholarships to ten students who are studying in grade 11 from different parts of Nepal. Senior board member Dipak Narayan Bhiswakarm handed over the scholarship to students. Advisor of PDRC, Dr Meg Bahadur Bishwakarma had highlighted the importance and aims of establishing a scholarship for marginalized and Dalit communities. It plays a vital role in increasing access to higher education for marginalized youth in higher education.

10. Insights of the year and challenges

Insights of year

These are main learning from the program;

- An enthusiasm always guides the organization and person to achieve the goal.
- Without facing a challenge, one cannot grow.
- Without having the support or help, it is not easy to succeed.
- There are youths and well-wishers who have shown interest to support PDRC
- Health comes first
- The official works had been done from the home in a pandemic situation.
- New technology gave the new way for the person and program.
- Motivation is the means to any progressive ideas. The students got this opportunity in counselling process from the office.

Challenges

The main challenges to running the program this year were;

- COVID-19 pandemic has delayed the academic performance of students for a year,
- The office is small to conduct small programs at the office,
- The monitoring and evaluation of students did not affect due to COVID- 19.
- The government agencies and public organizations were also unable to provide services during the lockdown. It impacted our organization to attend to many works on time. That was the main reason for the delay in our regular works.
- PDRC had to reduce employees which has made it difficult for the organization to perform all the services efficiently.
- The demand for scholarships is higher than we are able to provide to the students.

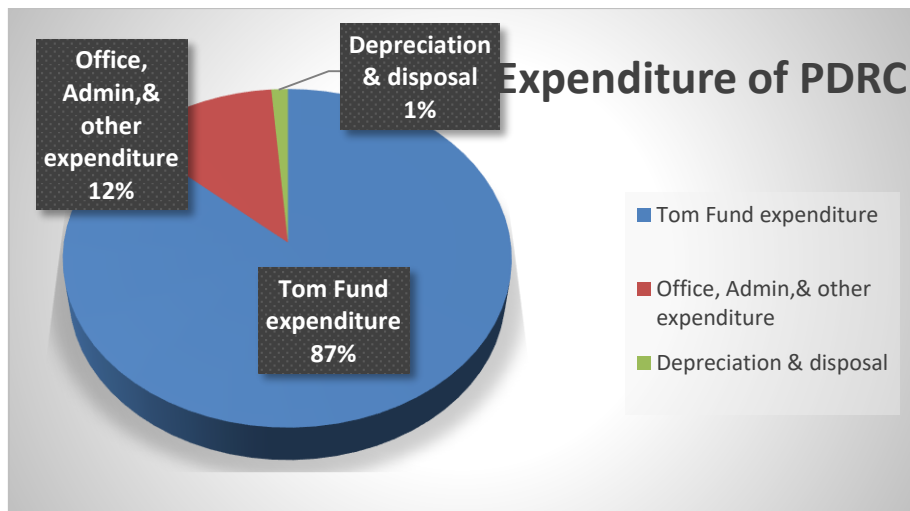

11. Financial Overview

Transparency, accountability and efficiency are very important values of the PDRC, and the organization has been following these norms and values as our golden principle. Our funds are being utilized to develop the careers of marginalized and Dalit students in higher education and employability. Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Nepal Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

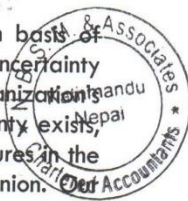

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with NSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with NSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidences that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidences obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidences obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
